ACG'S IBD SCHOOL & ACG / VGS / ODSGNA REGIONAL POSTGRADUATE COURSE

ACG'S IBD SCHOOL AND THE ACG / VGS / ODSGNA REGIONAL POSTGRADUATE COURSE ARE DESIGNED TO MEET THE NEEDS OF THE ENTIRE GI TEAM.

Join colleagues at these two outstanding programs developed specifically for gastroenterologists, nurse practitioners, physician assistants, nurses, and other members of the GI patient care team.

The programs are ideal for health care providers who want a comprehensive update but don't want to spend valuable time away from the office.

New for 2018, we have added a full day of education on Friday with ACG's IBD School - nearly doubling the total education time offered for the weekend. ACG's IBD School is a day-long interactive educational program that focuses on the art and science of IBD.

The ACG / VGS / ODSGNA Regional Postgraduate Course, with a full day of programming on Saturday and a half day on Sunday, offers an agenda that features presentations on esophageal motility disorders, complications in ERCP, the newest approaches to hepatitis C management, incorporating advanced practitioners into a clinical practice, therapeutic drug monitoring for IBD patients, and current best practices for colon polypectomies. In addition, the keynote lecture, Quality in Gastroenterology: Where We Are in 2018, will provide valuable pearls to improve your practice metrics and the care of your patients. The program will also feature a special Nursing Breakout Session on Saturday afternoon, and fellows' case presentations illustrating difficult GI management issues.

Step back in time with a visit to the Historic Area of Colonial Williamsburg, which is just steps from the Williamsburg Lodge. Colonial Williamsburg features more than 500 restored and reconstructed buildings set on a 300-acre historic site. The Lodge is now a Marriott Autograph Collection hotel, so make your reservation and earn or redeem Marriott reward points! As a guest of the Lodge, you will enjoy discounts on admission passes to Colonial Williamsburg's Historic Area, preferred reservations for dining at Colonial Williamsburg taverns and restaurants, tee times at the Golden Horseshoe Golf Club, and more than 40 shops within walking distance.

Plan your visit to Williamsburg at www.history.org.

MOBILE APP INFORMATION

Included with your registration is complimentary access to the course presentations via the ACG Mobile App. The app can be used to view faculty presentations on tablets, mobile devices, and laptops. Attendees will be able to take notes and highlight key points on the presentation slides at the event, and can continue reviewing them after the course. PDFs of the presentations can be downloaded directly from the app or can be printed from the website version of the app. Pre-registrants will receive access to the app prior to the course, to view, download, or print the presentation slides. (NOTE: A printed syllabus will not be provided.)

PROGRAM DESCRIPTION / REGISTRATION INFORMATION

PROGRAM DESCRIPTION

ACG'S IBD School

IBD is an area of gastroenterology that continues to see rapid developments in diagnostic and medical therapeutic options. ACG's IBD School is a day-long educational program that combines an immersion in IBD management with a clinical update on new therapeutic and monitoring approaches. The goals of this course are to improve clinical judgment and to address the art and science of IBD management. The program will educate attendees in a practical manner regarding the natural history of disease, modifiable risk factors for adverse outcomes, diagnostic and prognostic testing, and rational decision making for medical treatment. The program will also address changes in epidemiologic trends, advances in laboratory, radiographic, and endoscopic modalities that directly impact diagnosis and management of IBD, as well as developments in surveillance of dysplasia in ulcerative colitis and Crohn's colitis. Some of the most challenging clinical scenarios, such as the approach to primary medication failure or secondary loss of response, will be discussed in great detail.

This program is designed for gastroenterologists, gastroenterology trainees, primary care physicians, nurses, physician assistants, and nurse practitioners interested in the latest information on IBD management.

ACG / VGS / ODSGNA Regional Postgraduate Course

The field of gastroenterology continues to experience an introduction of novel diagnostic techniques and therapeutic options, affecting numerous areas of GI disease management and patient care. This program explores those areas which the gastroenterologist often faces in clinical practice and addresses management updates in a variety of gastrointestinal and hepatic areas. This course will explore multiple areas, including the upper GI tract, pancreatobiliary, hepatology, practice management, IBD, and the lower GI tract. The structure of the program includes a mix of didactic presentations delivered by expert faculty, breakout sessions, case presentations, and significant question and answer opportunities.

This program is designed for gastroenterologists, gastroenterology trainees, primary care physicians, nurses, physician assistants, and nurse practitioners interested in the latest information on diagnostic GI and state-of-the-art treatment of GI illnesses.

ACCREDITATION / CME / MOC

ACG's IBD School

The American College of Gastroenterology is accredited by the Accreditation Council for Continuing Medical Education (ACCME) to provide continuing medical education for physicians.

The American College of Gastroenterology designates this live activity for a maximum of 9 AMA PRA Category 1 Credits[™]. Physicians should claim only the credit commensurate with the extent of their participation in the activity.

Successful completion of this CME activity, which includes participation in the evaluation component, enables the participant to earn up to 9 MOC points in the American Board of Internal Medicine's (ABIM) Maintenance of Certification (MOC) program. Participants will earn MOC points equivalent to the amount of CME credits claimed for the activity. It is the CME activity provider's responsibility to submit participant completion information to ACCME for the purpose of granting ABIM MOC credit.

ACG / VGS / ODSGNA Regional Postgraduate Course

This activity has been planned and implemented in accordance with the accreditation requirements and policies of the Accreditation Council for Continuing Medical Education (ACCME) through the joint providership of the American College of Gastroenterology, the Virginia Gastroenterological Society, and the Old Dominion Society of Gastroenterology Nurses and Associates. The American College of Gastroenterology is accredited by the ACCME to provide continuing medical education for physicians.

The American College of Gastroenterology designates this live activity for a maximum of 10.25 AMA PRA Category 1 Credits™. Physicians should claim only the credit commensurate with the extent of their participation in the activity.

Successful completion of this CME activity, which includes participation in the evaluation component, enables the participant to earn up to 10.25 MOC points in the American Board of Internal Medicine's (ABIM) Maintenance of Certification (MOC) program. Participants will earn MOC points equivalent to the amount of CME credits claimed for the activity. It is the CME activity provider's responsibility to submit participant completion information to ACCME for the purpose of granting ABIM MOC credit.

Nursing Credits

This educational activity has been submitted to the Society of Gastroenterology Nurses and Associates, Inc., for approval. The Society of Gastroenterology Nurses and Associates, Inc., is accredited as an approver of continuing nursing education by the American Nurses Credentialing Center's Commission on Accreditation.
